

Real Estate Sales

Oversight

Analysis

Recommendations

At SIFF we believe our greatest value is to act as an objective third party advisor between our investors and real estate partners (realtors, mortgage brokers, and property managers) to ensure our client's investment returns are maximized. By changing the playing field to create oversight and accountability, you receive the best service, pricing, and investment options.

SIFF can help you whether you are selling one rental property or a whole portfolio. We work with owners who have single family homes to large multi-unit rental properties.

Sales oversight and Maximization

With careful analysis, attention to detail and consistent oversight, SIFF excels in securing the highest price and best terms when selling your property. Our selling oversight and recommendation service is completely FREE to you. So why not use an objective third party like SIFF to help maximize your sales price at no additional cost.

We oversee the Realtor to provide a higher level of accountability, ensuring you receive the best service, pricing and options available.

We have 3 goals at SIFF

1. Provide oversight to increase your income
2. Ensure accountability to lower your expenses
3. Make recommendations to save you valuable time
